

(LEGO) Literacy, Education, Growth and Opportunity

Mohave Library Alliance Fall Conference

Friday, November 6, 2009

Mohave Community College, Bullhead City Campus

$25.00 Registration Fee Includes:

Breakfast, Lunch and a Day of Events & Networking!

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Martha W. Gilliland, Ph.D. Executive Director, Literacy for Life Coalition

Martha W. Gilliland, Ph.D. currently leads the Literacy for Life Coalition in Tucson, Arizona, a team of 30 leaders from business, education, philanthropy, the media, and not-for-profit organizations. This team has developed a joint business plan and established priorities for enhancing literacy levels from birth through adults in Greater Tucson.

Dr. Gilliland is formerly Chancellor/CEO of the University of Missouri-Kansas City (UMKC) and holds a Ph.D. in environmental engineering and systems ecology from the University of Florida

mgilliland@
cfsoaz.org

2009/2010 FOCUS: LITERACY

Building a solid foundation for literacy

Breakout Sessions:

-  Library Online Services for Schools and Youth
-  Strategies for Reluctant Readers
-  Developing your School Library Collection

 World Cafe Brainstorming Session: "Building Family Literacy in our Community"

(LEGO) Literacy, Education, Growth and Opportunity

Mohave Library Alliance Conference Registration

(Please Print or Type)

Registrant Name _____

Mailing Address _____

Business or Organization _____

Phone Number _____

Email Address _____

Send Check or Money Order for $25.00 and Completed Application By October 25th To:

Mohave Library Alliance,
P.O. Box 4191
Kingman, AZ 86402 - 4191

Breakfast and Lunch provided. For more information visit www.mohavelibraryalliance.org or call (928) 692-5790

